OAKLAND PIONEER IS DEAD

Allen J. Dear, Resident of Oregon Since 1877, Answers Call.

OAKLAND, Or., May 24.—(Special.)—Allen J. Dear, one of the best-known citizens of Douglas county, died at his home near Oakland May 10 and was laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery May 12. Service at the grave was conducted by the Masonic lodge of Oakland, of which he had been a member for many years.

Mr. Dear was born near St. Joseph, Mo., September 3, 1860, came to California in 1874, and to Oregon, where he had since resided, in 1877. He was married to Fannie Vail January 3, 1884. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Charles R., Allen C., Edward J., William R., Thurman and Amanda. Allen C. and Edward J., who were volunteers in the service of the United States during the war, arrived home a short time before his death.

The Sunday Oregonian, May 25, 1919

OAKLAND PIONEER IS DEAD

Allen J. Dear, Resident of Oregon Since 1877, Answers Call.

OAKLAND, Or., May 24.—(Special.)—Allen J. Dear, one of the best-known citizens of Douglas county, died at his home near Oakland May 10 and was laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery May 12. Service at the grave was conducted by the Masonic lodge of Oakland, of which he had been a member for many years.

Mr. Dear was born near St. Joseph, Mo., September 3, 1860, came to California in 1874, and to Oregon, where he had since resided, in 1877. He was married to Fannie Vail January 3, 1884. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Charles R., Allen C., Edward J., William R., Thurman and Amanda. Allen C. and Edward J., who were volunteers in the service of the United States during the war, arrived home a short time before his death.

The Sunday Oregonian, May 25, 1919

OAKLAND PIONEER IS DEAD

Allen J. Dear, Resident of Oregon Since 1877, Answers Call.

OAKLAND, Or., May 24.—(Special.)—

Allen J. Dear, one of the best-known citizens of Douglas county, died at his home near Oakland May 10 and was laid to rest in the Masonic cemetery May 12. Service at the grave was conducted by the Masonic lodge of Oakland, of which he had been a member for many years.

Mr. Dear was born near St. Joseph, Mo., September 3, 1860, came to California in 1874, and to Oregon, where he had since resided, in 1877. He was married to Fannie Vail January 3, 1884. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Charles R., Allen C., Edward J., William R., Thurman and Amanda. Allen C. and Edward J., who were volunteers in the service of the United States during the war, arrived home a short time before his death.

This obituary clipping was generously provided by Steve Huckins.